NOTES ON TRANSLATION

* In keeping with the Korean naming convention, the last (family) name will come first. Therefore, in case of "Yee Su-yaan", "Yee" is the last name.

* Most Korean first (given) names are made up of two syllables. In order to ease the reading of Korean first names, I have put a hyphen in between the syllables.

* "Sunbae" is used to address upperclassman. It can be used by itself or as a suffix. i.e. Su-yoon Sunbae

* "Hyung" is used to address older boys/men by younger boys/men whether he is a family member or not. It means older brother. It can be used by itself or as a suffix. i.e. Su-yaan Hyung
